

Elizabeth Gooderham

Barrister

Year of Call: 2001

Inn of Court: Inner Temple

Degree: LL.B (Derby)

Practice Areas: Public Law Children (Care and Adoption), Private Law Children and Criminal law

After beginning her career with a broad-based general criminal and family practice Elizabeth now predominantly specialises in Family law.

Family law:

Elizabeth's family law practice covers all aspects of Children Act applications, from complex care cases involving allegations of serious sexual abuse, NAI and neglect to private law disputes.

In public law matters Elizabeth regularly appears for Local Authorities and Children/Guardians. She has a reputation for her thorough preparation, hard work and diligence and her approachable nature.

Elizabeth has extensive experience and a sensitive approach in representing clients with mental health and learning disabilities, addiction difficulties and particularly young clients.

Criminal law:

Elizabeth has over a decade of experience both prosecuting and defending in the Criminal courts.

An experienced and effective trial advocate, Elizabeth is particularly adept at cases involving young defendants or child witnesses.

Elizabeth is known for being a thorough and proficient advocate and for her articulate and persuasive style.

